

Simon Pongratz | Working student

District heating – Energy systems

Simon Pongratz works at Hamburg Institut, focussing on district heating and climate-neutral companies. As part of his studies, he completed a six-month internship at Hamburg Institut before joining as a working student.

Simon Pongratz is currently studying for a Bachelor's degree in Sustainable Technical Processes, having previously completed vocational training and worked as an industrial mechanic.

Consultancy and research focus

- District heating
- Energy systems

Qualification and career

Since 2024	Working student at Hamburg Institut
2023 – 2024	Intern at Hamburg Institut
Since 2020	B.Sc. Sustainable Technical Processes , Mannheim University of Applied Sciences
2020	Industrial mechanic , focus on machine design, Mineralö Raffinerie Oberrhein GmbH & Co. KG
2016 – 2020	Apprenticeship as industrial mechanic , Mineralö Raffinerie Oberrhein GmbH & Co. KG